

GLR Update – August 2021

Our office is currently closed due to the ACT lockdown, however our team is continuing to work remotely. Please email us your Tax and/or BAS information when you have it ready, there is no need to wait until the office can re-open. If we require anything further, we will be in touch. Once complete, all our correspondence will be sent to you electronically for signing.

With so many of our clients affected by the current lockdown, we wanted to share some links to various sites that may be useful:

For ACT businesses, you can see details of the Government's economic support for small businesses here. Most importantly, how to register an expression of interest which will enable you to be contacted by the Government when applications open:

For our clients who operate businesses in NSW affected by the current lockdown, you can read the eligibility details and apply for the Covid-19 business grant via the Service NSW website below. If eligible, you will need to complete the application process from the website as a first step, and then we can prepare the required letter and any other supporting documents as needed. <https://www.service.nsw.gov.au/transaction/2021-covid-19-business-grant>
